DFS to hold virtual town halls on Draft LIEAP State Plan

CHEYENNE, Wyo. — The Wyoming Department of Family Services (DFS) will host two Virtual Town Halls to gather public comment on the draft State Plan for the Low Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP) for the 2026–2027 heating season. The town halls will be held at 6 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 21 and 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Sep. 22.

LIEAP helps eligible Wyoming households by paying a portion of their winter home heating costs, assisting with heating emergencies, and improving home energy efficiency. Last season, LIEAP distributed an estimated $5.04 million in assistance to help 7,294 Wyoming households stay warm. LIEAP receives federal funding through the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and is administered by DFS.

The draft LIEAP State Plan is available for review at mylieapwyo.org. Join the Monday, Sept. 21 Town Hall online at meet.google.com/doy-ueut-vbb or by phone at (US) +1 442-324-3319 PIN: 523222853. Join the Tuesday, Sept. 22 Town Hall online at meet.google.com/vfj-yver-hme or by phone at (US) +1 929-287-3781 PIN: 990924922.

Written comments must be submitted by 4 p.m. on September 22, 2026. Comments may be emailed to kristina.packard1@wyo.gov or mailed to the attention of Kristina Packard, LIEAP Program Manager; 444 W. Collins Drive, Suite 2100; Casper, Wyoming 82601.

LIEAP applications are currently open on a priority basis for seasonal heating assistance. Priority access in September is available to households that include: seniors aged 60 and over, children aged 5 and under, and individuals with disabilities. General enrollment opens October 1 for all other eligible households and remains open through April 30, 2027. A new application is required every heating season. Apply online at mylieapwyo.org. If not able to apply online, please call (800) 246-4221, and we can assist with your application over the phone.
